SCHEDULING ORDER

On August 9, 2018, the parties filed a joint status report with proposed schedule. Although the requested schedule is longer than typically approved, the schedule is reasonable given the complexity of the issues remaining even after the May 7, 2018, initial decision granting in part and denying in part Respondents' motion to dismiss and supplemental motion to dismiss. Accordingly, the dates proposed jointly by the parties are adopted with the exception of the deadline for filing dispositive motions after the close of discovery. Dispositive motions at the close of discovery are disfavored as it is generally more efficient at that stage of the case to proceed directly to briefing on the merits. To assist the parties with planning, dates and instructions are provided for filing briefs.

For the reasons stated above, it is hereby ORDERED that the parties abide by the following schedule:

Oct. 9, 2018	Respondents file answer, affirmative defenses, etc. to complaint.
Oct. 23, 2018	Exchange of initial disclosures.
Nov. 2, 2018	Service of written discovery demands.
Feb. 15, 2019	Complainants' expert witness report(s) to be served.

March 4, 2019	Depositions of all fact witnesses and fact discovery completed.
April 2, 2019	Respondents' expert witness report(s) to be served.
May 13, 2019	Depositions of expert witnesses completed.
June 12, 2019	Complainants file brief, proposed findings of fact, and appendix.
July 12, 2019	Respondents file opposition brief, proposed findings of fact, appendix, and responses to Complainants' proposed findings of fact.
July 29, 2019	Complainants file reply brief and responses to Respondents' proposed findings of fact.

The parties are reminded that a "scheduling order 'is not a frivolous piece of paper, idly entered, which can be cavalierly disregarded by counsel without peril.'" Johnson v. Mammoth Recreations, Inc., 975 F.2d 604, 610 (9th Cir. 1992) (quoting Gestetner Corp. v. Case Equipment Co., 108 F.R.D. 138, 141 (D. Me. 1985)). Moreover, "[p]arties cannot control an agency's docket or procedures through agreement among themselves." Simmons v. United States, 698 F.2d 888, 893 (7th Cir. 1983). The authority of courts to control their dockets is well settled. Link v. Wabash Railroad Co., 370 U.S. 626, 630-31 (1962); United States v. Hughey, 147 F.3d 423, 429 (5th Cir. 1998).

The parties' briefs, proposed findings of fact, responses to proposed findings of fact, and appendices shall be in the following forms:

1. [Party's] Brief. Each party shall file a brief meeting the requirements of Commission Rule 214, 46 C.F.R. § 502.214, with the exception that the proposed findings of fact shall not count toward the page limit found in Rule 214(e).
2. [Party's] Proposed Findings of Fact. This document shall set forth proposed findings of fact in numbered paragraphs. Each paragraph shall be limited as nearly as practicable to a single factual proposition. Each factual proposition shall be followed by an exact citation to evidence that the party contends will support the proposed finding of fact; e.g., a page number in the appendix.¹ The party shall provide to each other party and to the Office of Administrative Law Judges an electronic copy of its proposed findings of fact with the hard copy of its proposed findings of fact. The electronic copy shall be in a word-processing format (e.g., Microsoft Word or WordPerfect) and provided by disk, flash drive, or email.

¹ Parties must designate specific facts and provide the court with their location in the record. Orr v. Bank of Am., NT & SA, 285 F.3d 764, 775 (9th Cir. 2002). "General references [to evidence] without page or line numbers are not sufficiently specific." S. Cal. Gas Co. v. City of Santa Ana, 336 F.3d 885, 889 (9th Cir. 2003).

3. [Party's] Responses to [Party's] Proposed Findings of Fact. This document shall set forth verbatim each proposed finding of fact in another party's proposed findings of fact, then admit or deny the proposed finding. Each proposed finding of fact that an opposing party denies shall be followed by an exact citation to evidence that the opposing party contends will rebut the evidence the proposing party claims supports the proposed finding of fact. The opposing party shall provide to the party and to the Office of Administrative Law Judges an electronic copy of the response to [Party's] proposed findings of fact with the hard copies of the response to [Party's] proposed findings of fact. The electronic copy shall be in a word-processing format (e.g., Microsoft Word or WordPerfect) and provided by disk, flash drive, or email.
4. [Party's] Appendix. The evidence on which a party's proposed findings of fact or response to another party's proposed findings of fact is based shall be included in an appendix.
 - a. The cover of the appendix shall identify the party or parties that prepared the appendix;
 - b. The pages of the appendix shall be numbered sequentially, for example CX 1, CX 2, CX 3, or RX 1, RX 2, RX 3, etc. The appendix should be secured in a three-ring binder;
 - c. The appendix must begin with a table of contents identifying the page at which each individual document begins;
 - d. Each party shall ensure that all documents in its appendix are legible and in English or include a verified translation as required by Rule 7 (see 502 C.F.R. § 502.7); and
 - e. The parties are instructed to cite to a document in an appendix already in the record rather than include the same document in its own appendix. For instance, if Respondent contends that a document included in Complainants' appendix rebuts the evidence Complainant claims supports a proposed finding of fact, Respondent shall cite to Complainants' appendix rather than include a second copy of the same document in its own appendix.
5. Service and Filing. The parties are encouraged to serve and file hard copies of the documents required by this order by overnight delivery service.

The parties are directed to consult with each other to determine the most practicable way to send electronic copies of documents in a word-processing format to each other. The parties are directed to send the electronic copy in a word-processing format of required documents to the Office of Administrative Law Judges at the following email address: judges@fmc.gov with opposing counsel copied. Word processing versions should not be submitted to the Office of the Secretary.
