

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION
Office of Administrative Law Judges

EALYTEX GLOBAL INC., Complainant

v.

COSCO SHIPPING LINES CO., LTD., Respondent.

DOCKET NO. 26-08

Served: June 29, 2026

ORDER OF: Richard AMBROW, Administrative Law Judge.

ORDER GRANTING RESPONDENT’S MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO ANSWER OR OTHERWISE RESPOND TO THE COMPLAINT

On May 27, 2026, Complainant Ealytex Global, Inc., filed a Verified Complaint (“Complaint”) that names COSCO Shipping Lines Co., Ltd., as Respondent. In short, Complainant alleges that Respondent imposed unjust and unreasonable demurrage and detention charges, and unreasonably refused to deal or negotiate in violation of 46 U.S.C. § 41102(c) (Count I) and 46 U.S.C. § 41104(a)(10) (Count II).

The Commission issued a Notice of Filing of Complaint and Assignment (“Notice”) for this proceeding on June 3, 2026. Per Commission Rule 62, Respondent has twenty-five days, or until June 29, 2026, to answer or otherwise respond. (46 C.F.R. § 502.62(b)).¹

On June 26, 2026, Respondent filed Respondent’s Motion for Extension of Time to Answer or Otherwise Respond to the Complaint (“Motion to Extend”), asking for an additional week, or until July 6, 2026, to prepare a response to the Complaint. Respondent represents that counsel was retained on June 26, 2026. Respondent also represents that Complainant does not oppose this request.

Motions to enlarge deadlines may be granted upon a showing of good cause. Further, while motions to enlarge deadlines are to be filed at least seven days before the deadline, a motion to enlarge may be granted when filed fewer than seven days before the deadline where reasonable grounds for the delayed filing exist. (46 C.F.R. § 502.102(a)). Here, because counsel for Respondent was not retained until June 26, 2026, because Complainant does not oppose the Motion to Extend, and because the requested extension of one week is reasonable, I find that good cause exists to grant the Motion to Extend, and that reasonable grounds exist for the belated filing.

Therefore, the Motion to Extend is GRANTED.

It is HEREBY ORDERED that Respondent's response is now due no later than July 6, 2026.
