Docket No. 24-01

Visual Comfort & Co.

v.

COSCO Shipping Lines Co., Ltd.

-----
COMPLAINANT’S MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF PAGE LIMITS

Pursuant to the Rules of Practice and Procedure of the Federal Maritime Commission (“Commission” or “FMC”) 69 and 71, Complainant respectfully requests an enlargement of the page limits otherwise applicable to its Second Motion to Compel, filed today. The good cause supporting these requests is set forth below.

Rule 71 provides that a non-dispositive motion may not exceed 10 pages without leave of the Presiding Officer. Complainant’s Second Motion to Compel filed today is fourteen (14) pages; this is reasonably close to the page limit. Complainant’s Second Motion to Compel concerns (1) Respondent’s failure to take reasonable measures to locate and produce responsive and relevant documents, and (2) Respondent’s failure to produce a corporate designee prepared to testify on certain topics designated in Complainant’s Rule 30(b)(6) deposition notice. Because Complainant is effectively combining two discovery motions into one motion for purposes of efficiency, it was unable to meet the 10-page limit and submits that the moderate extension requested is reasonable.

Allowing Complainant's request for a 4-page extension will not prejudice the Respondent, and Complainant will not oppose a proportionate request for additional pages for Respondent's response to the motion, should it seek such relief.

For the foregoing reasons, Complainant believes that there is good cause for the Presiding Officer to grant an enlargement of page limits set forth in the Rules and respectfully request such relief.
