DOCKET NO. 25-31

Served: April 10, 2026

ORDER OF: Linda S. Harris CROVELLA, Administrative Law Judge.

SCHEDULING ORDER

On April 9, 2026, the parties filed a Joint Motion to Extend Deadlines, requesting a 30-day extension of the remaining deadlines set forth in the February 4, 2026, Scheduling Order. As good cause for a 30-day extension, the parties state that they have worked collaboratively to collect, review, and produce documents to each other on a rolling basis. Complainant made productions on March 24 and 31, 2026, and is still reviewing a substantial number for relevance, privilege, and expects to make a third production within a week of the joint motion, and Respondent completed their initial production of documents on March 10, 2026. Both parties need time to review the documents produced to prepare for depositions, and the parties anticipate the number of depositions will be significant. The parties are reminded that the number of depositions is limited, absent leave, by Rule 203. 46 C.F.R. § 502.143(a)(2)(i).

Based on the volume of documents produced and the number of depositions the parties anticipate conducting, good cause has been established for the 30-day extension.

Accordingly, the parties are ORDERED to follow the schedule below:

April 20, 2026 ¹	Substantial completion of productions of documents and ESI in response to initial RFPs
May 7, 2026 ²	Parties to file Third Joint Status Report
June 22, 2026	Complete depositions of fact witnesses
