V

EMEKA ONYECHI d/b/a DONEM INTERNATIONAL LLC (Respondent)

SETTLEMENT NOTICE

April 1, 2015

To whom it may concern,

We will like to bring to your notice that the above complaint with Docket # 1945(F) between Okoye Christian Ogochukwu (Complainant) and Emeka Onyechi (Respondent) has been resolved by the two parties involved.

After telephone conference between the parties and Chief Administrative Law Judge (Judge Clay G. Guthridge) on the likely outcome of the final judgement. Complainant and Respondent had another lengthy phone conversation which resulted on both agreeing without any reservation to drop all claims and counter claims and resolve the issue between themselves.

It was also on that conversation that the Respondent reconsidered to waive all storage fees and other fees to enable the Complainant pick up his remaining equipment. However, the Respondent requested that the Complainant pay him back all the physical money he has spent to defend this claim which the Complainant agreed to pay. Total amount of $250 was billed to the Complainant to cover the mailing cost of the materials sent to FMC and Complainant as well as attorney's consultation fee. Complainant as agreed has deposited the total sum of $250 into the Respondent account and he Respondent has confirmed such deposit.

Complainant can now pick up the remaining 5 units of the medical equipment from the Respondent's facility in Lagos.

Complainant and Respondent are now requesting that Federal Maritime Commission close the referenced complaint permanently based on this settlement notice by both parties.

This Settlement notice is written , agreed to and signed by both parties on this 1st day of April 1, 2015.
