ORDER OF: Erin M. WIRTH, Chief Administrative Law Judge.

ORDER EXTENDING DEADLINE FOR SCOPE OF DISCOVERY DISPUTES

On March 4, 2021, a scheduling order was issued setting a deadline of March 15, 2021, for the parties to submit any discovery disputes regarding the scope of discovery. On March 15, 2021, the parties sent an email "submitted on behalf of all parties," which stated:

In preparation for the March 15, 2021 deadline to submit disputes regarding the scope of discovery, the Complainant and Respondents have met and conferred. Based on that conversation, the parties are presently working toward an agreement on the scope of priority documents, but will need additional time to negotiate the scope of discovery and have agreed to submit disputes regarding the scope of discovery by April 16. The parties therefore request that the Scheduling Order be amended to incorporate that agreement. If the parties believe disputes are ripe for submission before that date, they will inform the Presiding Officer accordingly.

The requested extension of one deadline should not impact other deadlines in the proceeding. The joint request is GRANTED, and it is hereby ORDERED that the deadline to submit any discovery disputes regarding the scope of discovery be extended to April 16, 2021.
