ORDER OF: Erin M. WIRTH, Chief Administrative Law Judge.

FOURTH AMENDED SCHEDULING ORDER

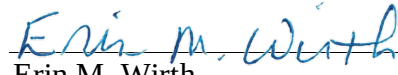

On December 3, 2021, the parties filed a joint status report and proposed amended schedule ("JSR"). The parties have engaged in significant discovery and are completing fact depositions. This is a complex proceeding with thirteen respondents, multiple non-parties, and well over a million pages of documents produced.

The parties provide good cause to amend the schedule and should continue working together as efficiently as possible. Complainant proposes an extension of four weeks while Respondents propose an extension of approximately seven weeks. Respondents' proposed schedule for completing depositions is reasonable for complex litigation involving multiple parties. With the revised deposition schedule extending through the holidays, initial expert reports can be provided earlier, in line with the amount of time initially requested in the parties' first proposed schedule. The revised schedule will only extend the proceeding by approximately five weeks, although it also adds deadlines for responding to motions for summary decision.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the parties abide by the following fourth amended schedule:

January 31, 2022	Complete fact depositions
February 11, 2022	Joint stipulation of facts

February 28, 2022	Disclosure of initial expert reports
March 18, 2022	Disclosure of rebuttal expert reports, if necessary
April 1, 2022	Expert discovery cut-off
April 15, 2022	Completion of discovery
April 29, 2022	Motions for summary decision
May 27, 2022	Oppositions to motions for summary decision
June 13, 2022	Replies to motions for summary decision
