WAY2GO CARGO CORP., Complainant

v.

OAK WAY CARGO, LLC, Respondent.

DOCKET NO. 25-14

Served: November 14, 2025

ORDER REQUIRING A JOINT STATUS REPORT BY NOVEMBER 21, 2025, AND REJECTING FILING OF COMPLAINANT’S INITIAL DISCLOSURES

On October 1, 2025, the parties were instructed as follows: “Parties are expected to proceed with their cases to the extent possible, including conducting discovery and serving opposing parties with filings – including motions, briefs, and responses to requests for additional information – by the established deadlines.” (See Notice Regarding Deadlines of October 1, 2025).

The Initial Order in this matter, which was issued July 31, 2025, requires that the parties file a joint status report within fifteen days of the filing of the answer. The Respondent filed its Answer on September 29, 2025.<sup>1</sup> Therefore, a joint status report should have been filed no later than October 14, 2025. If the joint status report was only filed with secretary@fmc.gov, please forward to judges@fmc.gov a copy of the email sending the filing. If no joint status report was filed, the parties are ORDERED to file the status report no later than November 21, 2025.

The parties are reminded that the Initial Order requires the parties to submit a proposed schedule that contemplates the completion of discovery within 150 days of the date of the answer. (See 46 C.F.R. § 502.141(g)).

The Initial Order also requires the parties to contact CADRS within 15 days of the filing of the answer. The parties are ORDERED to contact CADRS no later than November 21, 2025, if they have not done so already (but are reminded not to address the substance of any settlement discussions in their joint status report).

Regarding Initial Disclosures, the parties were required to exchange them within seven days of the filing of the answer. (See 46 C.F.R. § 502.141(b)). Complainant, however, filed its initial disclosures as part of the record. The Initial Order and Commission Rules indicate that discovery material is generally not to be filed with the Office of the Secretary, unless it is part of another filing, such as a motion. (Initial Order, at ¶ 12; 46 C.F.R. § 502.2(k)). Therefore, the Complainant's Initial Disclosures are REJECTED from the record.

If Respondent did not provide its initial disclosures, Respondent is ORDERED to do so as soon as practicable, and in any event, no later than November 21, 2025.
