

BEFORE THE FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION
Washington, D.C.

Docket No. 25-15

JOINT REQUEST FOR LIMITED EXTENSION OF DISCOVERY DEADLINE

Complainant Worldwide Nexus Logistics, LLC (“WNL”) and Respondent Wallenius Wilhelmsen Ocean AS (“WWO”) (together, the “Parties”), by and through the undersigned, respectfully request a limited extension of the discovery deadline solely with respect to the deposition of Complainant’s representative, Mr. Jean Lopez.

1. Background

Pursuant to the Scheduling Order dated September 11, 2025 (“the Scheduling Order”), discovery in this matter is scheduled to close on January 22, 2026. The Parties have conducted discovery in accordance with the Court’s directives, with only the deposition of Complainant’s Mr. Jean Lopez outstanding, which was scheduled for January 20, 2026.

2. Good Cause for Extension

On the evening of January 19, 2026, Complainant informed Respondent’s counsel that Mr. Lopez is experiencing ongoing, unforeseen health-related circumstances within his immediate family that require continued care and attention and materially impair his ability to prepare for and participate effectively in a deposition the next day as scheduled. Mr. Lopez requested that the deposition be adjourned from January 20 to a “mutually convenient date in the near term.” Respondent’s counsel agreed to adjourn the deposition as a courtesy, to January 22, 2026, and to join in a request on consent that the Court approve a further adjournment of his deposition, with a corresponding extension of the discovery close date to allow the deposition. Mr. Lopez states that these circumstances are ongoing and that he reasonably expects them to persist for several additional weeks.

The Parties, therefore, have agreed to request a limited extension to ensure that the deposition of Mr. Lopez, and any discovery by Respondent associated with his deposition testimony, can be completed in an orderly manner.

3. Scope and Length of Extension

The Parties respectfully request that the Court for good cause shown approve the following changes in the Scheduling Order: (1) a limited extension of the discovery deadline exclusively to allow the deposition of Mr. Jean Lopez, and any discovery by Respondent associated with such deposition testimony, for approximately one month, from January 22, 2026, up to and including February 26, 2026; and (2) a corresponding extension of the briefing schedule from February 19 to March 18, 2026, for Complainant’s brief and related submissions; from March 19 to April 20, 2026, for Respondent's brief and related submissions; and from April 2 to May 4, for Complainant's reply brief.

4. No Prejudice

Granting this extension will not prejudice either Party and will not affect the Commission's requirement that the initial decision be issued within one year. Rather, it will promote an efficient and fair resolution of the proceeding by ensuring full participation in discovery.

5. Conclusion

For these reasons, the Parties respectfully request that the Court grant this Joint Request for a limited extension of the discovery deadline to allow the deposition of Mr. Lopez and corresponding extension of the briefing schedule as stated above, and such other date(s) as the Court deems appropriate.

Dated: January 20, 2026

/s/ Jean Lopez

Jean Lopez

Representative for Complainant

Worldwide Nexus Logistics, LLC

CLYDE & CO US LLP

By: /s/ John R. Keough

John R. Keough

2 Grand Central Tower

140 E 45th Street

Suite 26A, 26th floor

New York, NY 10017

Email: john.keough@clydeco.us

Attorneys for Respondent

Wallenius Wilhelmsen Ocean AS