v.

OMNI LOGISTICS LLC AND EPIC FREIGHT SOLUTIONS LLC, Respondents.

DOCKET NO. 22-31

Served: September 8, 2023

ORDER OF: Erin M. WIRTH, Chief Administrative Law Judge.

ORDER ENTERING PROTECTIVE ORDER

On September 6, 2023, the parties filed a joint motion requesting entry of confidentiality stipulation and proposed protective order and attaching the proposed protective order. The motion states that they “have jointly drafted the attached and agree to be bound by all of the terms contained therein.” Motion at 1.

The initial order issued in this proceeding states that: “The parties may agree and stipulate between themselves regarding treatment of confidential documents and information obtained during discovery that is not filed with the Commission. The parties may, but are not required to, file a courtesy copy of the agreement with the Commission.” Initial Order at 5. The proposed protective order is reasonable, however, the parties should note that after the initial decision is issued, the undersigned has no authority to rule on issues arising from the proceeding, and that cannot be changed by agreement between the parties.

The parties have established good cause to enter the protective order. Accordingly, the joint motion is GRANTED, and it is hereby ORDERED that the protective order be entered as an order in this proceeding.
